
ACCOUNTING MANAGER

ROLE SUMMARY:

Works independently and assumes responsibility in accounting areas assigned. Demonstrates supervisory and leadership abilities. Ability to work well with individuals from diverse backgrounds and all levels of management. Primary responsibilities in product costing and variance analysis and extensive knowledge of cost accounting principles is required. General knowledge and understanding of all accounting areas is preferred.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Will be responsible for product costing and variance analysis.
- Works with operations team in preparing annual fiscal plan and monthly financial updates.
- Assists in annual press rate calculation.
- Prepares annual audit reports for operations.
- Prepares month-end financial reports for Operations Management team.
- Performs month-end close activities for operations.
- Develops cost analysis and models as needed by operations management team.
- Assists in product cycle counts.
- Other duties as assigned by supervisor

MINIMUM EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE AND CORE COMPETENCY REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor of Arts degree with a minimum of 2 years related experience
- CE core competencies at the "Middle Managers" level
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Detail oriented
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and meet deadlines
- Strong Microsoft Excel and MRP and Standard cost systems
- Strong problem solving skills

PREFERRED EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE AND CORE COMPETENCY REQUIREMENTS:

- Knowledge of operational metrics , lean manufacturing practices , QS & ISO certifications & APQP procedures

To apply for this job, please email your resume and cover letter to hr-recruiter@cascadeng.com

Cascade Engineering Celebrates Diversity. EOE

